- (a) Approval of NMSU - Doña Ana Community College Hatch Center Project Design (Director Michael Rickenbaker)

Director Rickenbaker requested approval for the construction of the first phase of the new Hatch Center, located at the site of the former high school, at the corner of Main and Hill Streets in Hatch, NM. The project includes the development of the new site, extension of roads and utilities into the site, construction of a new parking lot and storm water ponding areas. The total cost of the 5,665 square foot project is $2,250,000. The source of funds is from 2005, 2006, and 2009 Local GO Bonds, and 2006 DACC Revenue Bond.

Regent Curtis moved, seconded by Regent Gonzales, to approve the NMSU-Doña Ana Community College Hatch Center Project Design. The motion carried unanimously.

- (b) Intentionally left blank
- (c) Approval of Master Plan Revisions and Updates (Director Michael Rickenbaker)

Director Rickenbaker gave an update of the current status of the Master Plan. The City Council of Las Cruces has approved the revision of the University Avenue district. Projects updated were the development of a Las Cruces Public Schools comprehensive high school, the Center for the Arts, the Gardner Hall, renovation of the NMSU Bookstore, Chamisa Phase II, the American Indian Student Center, the classroom addition to the Health and Social Services building, the NMSU Public Policy Facility, the proposed Undergraduate Teaching Center, the incubator building at Arrowhead Research Park, the proposed early College High School, the Football Coaches Offices, the Advanced Technology Center at NMSU-Alamogordo, the Allied Health Building NMSU-Carlsbad, phase one of the NMSU-DACC Chaparral Center, the NMSU-DACC East Mesa Campus phases, the NMSU-Gadsden Center, and the library at the NMSU-Grants campus and solar hot water. Also discussed were the conceptual plans for the future use of the space where the bookstore is presently housed.

Regent Curtis moved, seconded by Regent Anaya to approve the Master Plan Revisions and Updates. No action was taken.

- (d) Approval of Memorandum of Understanding Between NMSU Doña Ana Community College (DACC) and Las Cruces Public Schools (LCPS) for the Operation of the Early College High School (ECHS) (President Margie Huerta)

President Huerta gave a presentation and requested the approval of the Memorandum of Understanding Between NMSU Doña Ana Community College (DACC) and Las Cruces Public Schools (LCPS) for the Early College High School. The agreement is a one-year contract which began July 6, 2010. The early college high school will offer dual-credit courses towards earning an associates degree upon graduation from high school. The NMSU-DACC will house the early college high school for one year and will provide three classrooms. The public schools will be responsible for hiring the staff, paying their salaries, developing the curriculum in conjunction with NMSU-DACC, monitor and operate the school. The idea behind the early college high school is to help address the high drop out rate in high schools and make sure that a trained workforce will be available in Doña Ana County. Students who attend an early college high school, are the students NMSU-DACC wants to attract; first generation students and at-risk students. The research shows that these students stay in high school and finish their education at a higher rate than traditional students. Classes started on July 6, 2010 with an enrollment of 116 9th-grade students. The principal of the Early College High School is Jennifer Amis.

Regent Curtis moved, seconded by Regent Conniff, to approve the Memorandum of Understanding Between NMSU Doña Ana Community College (DACC) and Las Cruces Public Schools (LCPS) for the Operation of the Early College High School (ECHS). The motion carried unanimously.
