A motion was made by Regent Debra Hicks to approve the consent agenda. The motion was seconded by Regent Kari Mitchell. Motion passed.

4:30 PM

10. ACTION ITEMS (20 minutes)

(Senior Vice President Angela Throneberry and John Kennedy, Partner KPMG, LLC)

John Kennedy presented the Annual Audit report on behalf of KPMG, the contracted firm. There were no audit findings for NMSU in FY14-FY15. The educational Retirement Board (ERB) Pension Fund is underfunded so NMSU will have to book a related liability. After UNM did their ERB action, their bond rating was unaffected. Regent Hicks asked who the governing board of ERB is.

A motion was made by Regent Jerean Hutchinson and seconded by Regent Amanda López Askin to approve the Financial Report. Motion passed.

2. Proposed Revision to Policy 1.05.10 to formalize the Employee Council chair as an ex officio, nonvoting member of the Board.

General Counsel Liz Ellis explained the need to formalize the ex-officio status of the Employee Council Chair as a member of the Board of Regents. This has been in practice for some time. The motion passed.

3. Revision to Policy 1.05.20 to formalize a Regents’ Committee to be known as the Regents Student Success Committee; Discussion and finalization of the SSC Charter.

General Counsel Liz Ellis explained the policy revision to add the recently formed Student Success Committee (SSC) to the “chartered” Regents’ Committees listed in the NMSU Policy Manual. A draft charter is being considered by the SSC.
4:50

4. Revision to Policy 6.82 (Majors and Minors). (Liz Ellis, General Counsel).

General Counsel Liz Ellis explained the substance of Policy 6.82 which does not have the accompanying rules and procedures that would go in the Administrative Rules and Procedures (ARP) as opposed to the Regents Policy manual. The policy will define the process for who approves majors, minors, etc. All new degrees must be approved by the Board of Regents. Regent Kari Mitchell made a motion to decline to approve until the Credit Hour issues of 128 to 120 is approved and vetted through the Student Success Committee. The motion was seconded by Regent Jerean Hutchinson. Motion passed.

11. INFORMATION ITEMS-

As newly required by revised Rule 1.10, the BOR will begin receiving reports summarizing revisions made to the administrative rules and procedures (ARP). Liz Ellis, General Counsel. (5 minutes)

12. NEW MEXICO STATE UNIVERSITY CHANCELLOR & PRESIDENT’S REPORT, Chancellor Garrey Carruthers (15 minutes)

Chancellor Carruthers reported on the five teams working on organizational structure of NMSU. The teams are:

- Team 1- Organization and Span of Control
- Team 2-Support Staff Coverage Ratios
- Team 3-IT Service Delivery
- Team 4-Finance Service Delivery
- Team 5-Purchasing Vendors and Authority

Regent Cheney asked what the financial impact projections were for the teams. The Chancellor responded that some of the teams will have them at year’s end, but the first area to see positive impacts would be in the area of purchasing.

Regent Hutchinson asked who the Educational Advisory Board is. Can we identify who we should bench against?

Regent Kari Mitchell asked why there are no Deans on the Teams. The Chancellor explained that they will review the self-study. He believes they will be very involved in the ICT, Staff Support, and Financial Teams’ outcomes.

Regent Kari Mitchell asked why Facilities and Services were not in the study. They are under Finance and Administration. Human Resource Services is in the Provost’s Office. Chancellor Carruthers mentioned that the Office of Institutional Equity may move to the General Counsel’s Office. Regent Mitchell stated that she appreciated the work, legacy and leadership provided by the Chancellor.

13. NEW MEXICO STATE UNIVERSITY PROVOST & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT’S REPORT, Provost Dan Howard (15 minutes)

Provost Howard presented on the 128 to 120 credit hour issue, Meta majors, and the General Education Task Force. Chairman Cheney congratulated the university on moving toward many of the Complete College America practices. Regent Jerean Hutchinson asked the Provost about the projected timeline for the General Education Task Force to finish its work. He indicated it was November 2016.

Regent Hutchinson asked if soft skills would be covered in the General Education courses. She also asked if the meta majors would be online or an app. Provost Howard replied that it is already up on the website. He stated that the meta majors are popular and help transition students into degrees, e.g. food science.

Regent Debra Hicks asked if degree programs and majors (terminology) are used interchangeably. The answer is yes. Regent Kari Mitchell wanted to echo Regent Mike Cheney’s comments about Complete College America. The Regents’ Student Success Committee was doing virtual cartwheels about the great alignment of General Education identified skills and needed workplace skills. She stated NMSU is setting the bar for higher education in New Mexico.

In discussing the 128 to 120 credit hour issue, Provost Howard indicated that the College of engineering is very protective of their degree plans, they are cognizant of ABET accreditation and they are reviewing moving from 131 required degree credits to 120. Provost Howard explained that NMSU has a 6 credit requirement above New Mexico General Education requirements of 35 hours, called Viewing a Wider World. Regent Kari Mitchell asked, “What ids the end game?” Provost Howard replied that we will move to not less than 30 credits of General Education requirements.

Regent Debra Hicks asked if the Faculty Senate would review the output from the statewide General Education Task Force. Faculty Senate Chair, Stuart Munson McGee responded that he couldn’t predict that but he thought they would review Viewing a Wider World again. He said they a focused on designing a purposeful curriculum.
5:25 PM

14. CONFIRMATION OF PRIOR EXECUTIVE SESSIONS Chairman Mike Cheney (5 minutes)

Chief of Staff for the Board of Regents, Janet Green read the roll call for the members who had attended the last executive session held on December 12, 2015. All attested that they only discussed matters allowable by the Open Meetings Act.

15. ELECTION OF OFFICERS- Chairman Mike Cheney (5 minutes)

Chairman Mike Cheney opened the Election of Officers with commentary that he has chaired the Board of Regents for 4 years. He believes in succession planning so he is modeling that behavior. A motion was made by Regent Kari Mitchell and seconded by Regent Jerean Hutchinson that the Chair be Regent Debra Hicks. Motion passed. Regent Debra Hicks made a motion that was seconded by Regent Kari Mitchell that Regent Mike Cheney be elected Vice Chair. Motion passed. Regent Debra Hicks made a motion and Regent Kari Mitchell seconded the motion that Regent Jerean Hutchinson be elected Secretary/Treasurer. Motion passed.

Chairman Mike Cheney passed the gavel to incoming Chair Debra Hicks.
